Information on Examination Reforms

Evaluation is integral part of educational system. It enables to estimate the quality of students and teaching- learning process. Evaluation is a continuous process which begins with student's admission, assessed individual capability of students and encourage them accordingly. The Academic Council Committee supervises the entire examination & evaluation process.

EXAMINATIONS:-

Evaluation is a continuous process, which is based upon criteria developed by the concerned authorities with certain objectives to assess the performance of the learner. This also indirectly helps in the measurement of effectiveness and quality of the concerned B.D.S. curriculum.

Evaluation is achieved by two processes:-

- 1) Formative or internal assessment
- 2) Summative or university examinations.

Formative:-

Evaluation is done through a series of tests and examinations conducted periodically by the institution.

Summative:-

Evaluation is done by the university through examination conducted at the end of the specified curriculum.

Methods of evaluation:

Evaluation may be achieved by the following tested methods:

- i. Written test
- ii. Practical examination
- iii. Oral viva

The internal assessment examinations in theory, practical and only practical for pre-clinical subject is held 3 times in a particular year, followed by university examination in the pattern of university examination to be held at the end of the year of study. Internal assessment marks for a candidate in a subject will be calculated as the average of the marks obtained in the internal examinations.

This average mark will be reported to the University. The Heads of the Department and college principal should ensure that the class average of internal assessment marks reported to the University in each subject/paper is not less than 50% in both theory and practical separately. For a student to be eligible to appear for the University examination he/she should have secured at least 50% of the minimum marks in internal assessment for both theory and practical in all subjects separately.

- a. To be eligible to appear for the university examination a candidate has 75% attendance in theory and 80% in practical in the subjects of study for which university examination is held in a particular year.
- b. He/she will be eligible to appear in the university examination in those subjects in which he/she has secured the minimum requirement of 50% of internal assessment marks.
