REPORT

Department of oral pathology

On occasion of birth anniversary of dr. H.m.dholkia, national oral pathologist day was celebrated on 25thfeb, 2023 (saturday).

Program was conducted by dr. Anuja maniyar, dr. Varsha sangle, dr. Smita chaware and dr. Pragya bhatnagar.

Day celebration was started with the warm welcome of our beloved vice principal sir Dr.Yatishkumarjoshi followed by Vishwashanti prayer.

The anchoring was done wonderfully by Jasmin Faras &Ruta Gaikwad our intern students.

The lamp lightening by vice principal sir and department staff and it was graced by saraswativandan which was melodiously sung by AishwariyaDixit (intern student).

A fabulous speech was given by head of the department, Dr. Anuja Maniyar, which was very educational and motivational for the under graduate students.

The department has set the theme of hematoxylin & eosin colours and was beautifully decorated with the theme coloured balloons and decorative items and posters showing the artistic and creative side of our students and staff. The welcome rangoli in H&E colours at the department gate was beautiful.

A wall of fame was inaugurated showing list of toppers of dental anatomy/ histology and oral pathology for last 8 years. This boost up the spirit in students to study harder to get their names engraved on the list.

Adding to this joyfully environment our department have arranged various entertaining & educational competitions for the students. We have best from waste (carving waste wax/ soap) carving competition in which3re year student secured 1st position by carving mandibular jaw showing various cysts on soap. 2nd position was secured by our 1st year students group (RuchikaKshirsagar, Kannaki Gojamgunde, Rutuja Patil, Aditi Gaikwad, Sakshi Bhise, Aditi Hedda & Maithili Swami) who carved a beautiful sea shell with pearl in it.

Various carvings of best out of waste competition

Next we had a rangoli competition in which 1st prize winners were 3rd year students ShrushtiKatpure, Sneha Pawar, Surabhi Gulbhile& Shubhangi Jantine ,who used H&E colours along with other colours beautifully to represent various oral diseases clinically as well as Histologically in their rangoli.

Winner of rangoli competition

Next in the line was Spin the wheel competition which gave the chance to our students to show off their knowledge about the subject and the winner was Vaishnavi Kovhale of 3rd year.

Then there was e-poster competition where VaishnaviKovhale & Vaishnavi Lakle secured 1st position by presenting poster on Mucormycosis.

Our student's enthusiastically participated in all competitions and made it really difficult for the judges to find the winners. At the end the winners were awarded with certificates.

Certificates given to the winners

The vote of thanks was given by AishwariyaDharne& Shivani Shirureour intern students.

NATIONAL PERIODONTIST DAY

MIDSR DENTAL COLLEGE, LATUR

DEPARTMENT OF PERIODONTICS

National Periodontist Day 2023

To commemorate the registration of Indian Society of Periodontology under the state laws as a nonprofit front organization formed in 1975 with the primary aim of promoting and enhancing the knowledge and science of Periodontology in India, it was decided by ISP that national Periodontist day will be celebrated on 23rd February.

Department of Periodontics had arranged National Periodontist Day celebration on 23/02/2023 for IInd, IIIrd, IVth year students & Interns. The theme was on 'Healthy Gums - Healthy Body' as per the guidelines given by ISP.

On this occasion we arranged different activities for team coordination development, tattoo competition with theme of Periodontics, slogan competition for the undergraduate students.

We also conducted reels competition, skit competition, treasure hunt competition for third year, final year students, interns and post graduate students which all was related to the subject of Periodontology.

The inter-relationship of periodontal disease and systemic health has been suspected for centuries, in past few decades. It was evidenced with many researches. The speaker elaborated the importance of oral health and its impact on systemic health.

A total 119 attendants from 2nd year BDS, 3rd year BDS, 4th year BDS, Interns and Periodontics PGs attended Periodontics day celebration. 44 Students and Periodontics PGs participated in different games and competitions.

The programme was organized by Department of Periodontics. Hon. Principal Dr. Suresh kangane inaugurated function and addressed students. Dr. Vishnudas Bhandari introduced guest speaker and welcome guests. Dr. Trupti Giri had given vote of thanks. The organizing secretary Dr. Gauri Ugale, staff Dr. Raghavendra Metri, Dr. Priya Lahane, Dr. Mithila Kakade, Dr. Amruta Kendre taken efforts for success of programme.
