ACADEMIA

Dear Om,

Thank you for taking the time to review Fabiano Cunha's article "ROOT COVERING ASSOCIATED WITH BICHAT'S FAT BODY" submitted to Academia Letters.

We have decided to publish the article because a majority of reviewers thought it was worth reading by their peers. Here are the positive reviews, which will be published alongside the article:

"It will add to the pool of cases utilising buccal fat pad for root coverage. Helpful for coverage of multiple adjacent root recessions."

—Om Baghele, Maharashtra University Of Health Sciences, Nashik

"It is a nice article showing a novel technique for covering the roots. Bichat's fat is a good material providing a good volume for reconstruction without causing any defects or morbidity. This article shows yet another use of Bichat's fat."

—Nikhil Kurien, Kerala University Of Health Sciences

We'll host an open discussion of the Letter after it's published. These positive reviews will be used to kick off the conversation. You'll receive an invite in the next few weeks.

Thanks,

The Academia Team
