Lecture on Online Search Strategies

As part of Library User Program, a lecture was organized on the same day for PG Students of the college on "Online Search Strategies for articles with special emphasis on pubmed" by the Library Committee. It was delivered by Dr. Om Baghele, The Chairman of Library Committee for the benefit of PG Students. It was an informative session and we hope all those who were present for the lecture benefited a lot from it in the form of search strategies, word syntax, word search, systematic search, etc. How this is useful for streamlining research in the form of literature search for final dissertations and studies on systematic reviews and meta-analyses was discussed.

Dr. Om Baghele, give lecture on Online search strategies for articles with special emphasis on pubmed.
