Report of UG Orientation Programme 2025

The Undergraduate Orientation Programme was organized by the Women's Welfare and Grievance Committee of MIDS Dental College, Latur, with the objective of helping newly admitted undergraduate student's transition smoothly into college life. The programme aimed to introduce them to the academic environment, institutional culture, support systems, and core values of the institution.

Orientation is a critical step in preparing students for a new phase in life and education. Through this event, students were familiarized with college protocols, faculty members, academic expectations, and opportunities for holistic development.

The event was successfully organized under the leadership and active participation Dr. Gauri Ugale, Dr. Amol Doiphode, Dr. Varsha Sangle, Dr. Sheeraz Badal, Dr. Amol Badgire. Their collective efforts ensured that the programme was insightful, engaging, and beneficial to the new entrants.

Programme Highlights:

a. Welcome Address & Introduction:

The programme began with a traditional lamp lighting ceremony, symbolizing the removal of darkness and the ushering in of knowledge. This was followed by the "Vishwa Shanti" prayer, invoking peace and harmony for all, setting a serene and respectful tone for the day's proceedings.

The orientation began with a formal welcome and introduction session to extend a warm greeting to the newly joined students. The purpose of the orientation was explained, and an overview of the institution's academic structure and support systems was provided.

b. Felicitation of Topper Student:

To encourage academic excellence and motivate the freshers, a felicitation ceremony was held to honour a top-performing student. The felicitation aimed to recognize merit and install inspiration among the new batch.

c. Guest Lectures:

Two insightful lectures were delivered as part of the orientation programme:

- Dr. Varsha Sangle, addressed the students on professional conduct, academic discipline, and the importance of a strong foundational approach in dentistry.
- Dr. Gauri Ugale delivered an informative and motivational lecture highlighting gender sensitivity, college ethics, stress management, and personal development for young dental professionals.

These lectures were interactive, student-focused, and emphasized the holistic growth and ethical responsibilities of a budding healthcare provider.

d. Interactive Campus Introduction:

Students were given an overview of the campus layout, departmental structure, library, laboratories, and support facilities. Emphasis was placed on utilizing available resources effectively.

e. Institutional Values & Code of Conduct:

The speakers repeated the importance of aligning with the institution's mission and values, emphasizing ethics, inclusivity, responsibility, and professionalism in all aspects of student life.

3. Outcomes of the Programme:

- Students became familiar with the academic, social, and cultural framework of the institution.
- The lectures and interactions helped reduce anxiety, increase motivation, and build a sense of belonging.
- The felicitation of toppers set a positive precedent for academic excellence.
- The programme fostered early connections between students and faculty, paving the way for a healthy educational relationship.
- Orientation also sensitized students to gender equality, mental wellness, time management, and other life skills crucial for college success.

4. Conclusion:

The Undergraduate Orientation Programme organized by the Women's Welfare and Grievance Committee was a well-received and impactful event. It fulfilled its purpose of welcoming new students, introducing institutional values, and inspiring a confident start to their professional journey. The participation of dedicated faculty and the thoughtful inclusion of value-based sessions contributed to the overall success of the programme.
